

Doylestown Community Performing Arts

Sounds of Summer

2014

Presented by
Doylestown Township &
Doylestown Borough

Performances are free unless otherwise noted.

Rain location: Lenape Middle School • Info: www.doylestownrec.com

Amy Black

June 25 · Chapman Park · 7:00 p.m.

Amy Black, a Boston-based singer/songwriter with storytelling and Southern tradition in her blood is one of the best storytelling songwriters working today. Americana in its broadest definition, rooted in folk and country but with tinges of Southern soul and blues - A smooth, seductive sound that commands attention.

Philly Party Band / Fireworks

June 29 · Central Park · 7:30 p.m.

The Philly Party Band (the "Ultimate Party Band") will entertain you with everything from big band to disco to current top 40 hits. Then we'll light up the evening sky with fireworks. Rain date: Sunday, July 6th. $5.00 per car - Park opens at 5:00pm.

Darlingside

July 9 · Chapman Park · 7:00 p.m.

Darlingside values authentic performance on real instruments. This seamless, exhilarating sound sits at the intersection of folk, classical, and rock, with dreamy four-part harmonies, dominating cello and violin interjections, old-fashioned mandolin picking, and a dynamic rock engine at its core.

DK Brede
Investment Management Co.

Barb-Lin Carpet One

First National Bank of Newtown